RE: *Texas Bankers Association, et al. vs. Consumer Financial Protection Bureau

The undersigned state bankers associations, representing virtually all banks across the country, write in support of the request made in the attached letter concerning the above-referenced case to extend the stay outlined in the Court's Order to all FDIC-insured banks.

As you know, the Texas Bankers Association and American Bankers Association requested relief for every entity subject to the Final Rule, but the Court limited relief to members of just those associations (including co-plaintiff Rio Bank). As the TBA and the ABA asserted in their letter, a stay from the Bureau would streamline administration for the agency after the Supreme Court's ruling in the Community Financial case by including all banks and not just those that are members of TBA or ABA.

We agree that extending the relief already provided to numerous banks nationwide would be prudent and ameliorate confusion.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,
